

JL King

New York New York Times bestselling author and international speaker JL King has appeared in several national and international publications, including Newsweek, Time Magazine, Ebony Magazine, Essence, Jet (cover), The New York Post, The Washington Post and The Chicago Tribune. He has also appeared as a special guest on many television shows, including The Oprah Winfrey Show (3 times), Inside Edition ABC 20/20, CNN and countless radio shows. He was listed in Ebony Magazine as one of their 50 Most Intriguing Blacks and honored as an NAACP Image Award Nominee for Outstanding Literary Work. In 2006 King produced, The DL Exposed, an award-winning documentary that broadcast on Black Entertainment Television (BET). The documentary was the number one watched program on BET that year. King also has co-produced and been a consultant for several national TV shows and movies.

King is also founder of Book Cover Magazine an on line magazine for authors and readers. JL King Productions that produces stage plays and also is a consultant for several companies on branding and marketing.

King has spoken at over 200 universities including Harvard, Princeton, Yale, Ohio State, Michigan State, Miami University and over 20 Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCU). He also have spoken to over 50 national associations including every black sorority.

When he is not writing or creating projects that inspire and motivate others to follow their dreams with faith over fear, he splits his time between Brooklyn, NY and Atlanta, GA.

While he continues to bring readers new works, King also teaches courses on how to write and become a successful published author to continue his legacy of empowering a new generation of authors.